Hobart's Hidden Gem 1 Owner Earning $192,830 (2024)

It's a hidden gem within the Hobart Cafe scene and it packs a real punch. Giddy-Up Foodstore is undoubtedly one of Hobart's best-located cafes, this highly profitable suburban café is not only busy, but it also has a captive market and no direct competition.

Open 7 days a week from 7.30 am until 3 pm offering a fantastic café breakfast, lunch and brunch menu for eat-in and takeaway.

Giddy-Up is a trendy suburban gem with an all-season outside courtyard area where the family's 4-legged best friend is also welcome. Inside it's trendy with a funky feel and an open plan service area/kitchen makes the space easy to operate, and very welcoming for customers. A very profitable café with consistent year-on-year sales. Currently operating with a team of full-time and part-time staff, the current owner draws a good wage and works around 20 hours a week.

With inside and outside seating options, strong local following and a great reputation this is one of the best café opportunities in the market today.

So be quick as this easy to operate café that is producing very solid revenues will be popular and will not last long.
