An excellent opportunity to acquire a well-established engineering and manufacturing business in Western Australia

This is an excellent opportunity to acquire a well-established engineering and manufacturing business in Western Australia, specialising in the design, production and supply of industrial equipment and components, for the mining, bulk handling and engineering sectors.

The business combines local manufacturing capabilities with a range of imported products and is recognised for its strong reputation and trusted brand within the sector. Investment in research and development over the years has further refined its products, positioning the business for further growth.

With experienced staff, established infrastructure, and systems and procedures in place, this business also benefits from valuable intellectual know-how and patented products, ensuring a solid and loyal customer base. The business has demonstrated strong profitability, with EBITDA exceeding $1 million in each of the past two financial years.

Offering potential for further development, this business is well-positioned for growth and expansion. It presents an ideal opportunity for businesses looking to expand their existing operations or for buyers seeking a stand-alone operation. It could serve as a strategic addition to an aligned business or a platform for expansion in this sector.
