Accounting Practice for Sale South-West Sydney

Are you a local accountant or small practice in the South-West Sydney area looking to establish or expand your presence? This well-established practice, with over 15 years of consistent operation, presents a unique growth opportunity.

The practice has cultivated a loyal local client base and offers the flexibility of remote servicing, with occasional in-person meetings as needed. Currently operating from a home office, it can be easily relocated to any surrounding suburb (Padstow, Hurstville area).

An excellent offshore support team is in place, well-trained by the vendor to ensure a solid understanding of client needs and to maintain smooth operations.

The vendor, transitioning into retirement, is committed to assisting throughout the transition process. This setup offers a strong foundation for a local accountant or small firm aiming to establish or grow their practice.
