The first Domino's store to open in Australia was in Springwood, Queensland, in 1983, and offered home delivery after home delivery was introduced into Australia by the Pizza Oven Family Restaurants located at multiple sites all over the southside of Brisbane. The Australian and New Zealand Master Franchise was bought by Silvio's Dial-a-Pizza in 1993. In 1995, the two brands merged and rebranded as Domino's Pizza.

Currently, there are around 700 Domino's stores in Australia, making it the biggest pizza franchised business in the country.

This Dominos franchise is located in one of the regions fastest growing suburbs with a population of approx. 16,500 people. It is considered an extremely desirable region with numerous recreational facilities and very family orientated.

There are other nearby fast food operators, cementing the location as a foodie area.
