Printing Business for Sale

This well-established printing business has been trading for over 20 years. It sells a full range of printed products, including business cards, brochures, booklets, invoice books, posters, large-format signage, banners, stationery, stickers, flyers, brochures, booklets and bespoke wedding materials. The business also offers in-house graphic design and is a true one-stop shop for customers.

Over the years, this business has built a substantial database of long-term repeat customers. These are spread across a wide range of sectors, including Government departments, schools, sporting clubs, small to medium-sized businesses, corporations, not for profit organisations, other printing businesses and rural businesses.

Operating Monday to Friday only, it offers an excellent work-life balance for an owner-operator or a husband-and-wife team. Also, the current owner is willing to provide training and support to ensure a seamless transition.

The business is well-equipped, and the premises are fully set up and ready for you to step into and operate. Also, a secure lease is available.

Profitability to a working owner is circa $160,000 per year.

This quality business is being offered for sale at $275,000.

The business could also make a great purchase for an existing print company looking to grow through acquisition.
